

TAX TREATY STATEMENT - TEACHER OR RESEARCHER
People's Republic of China
Article 19

1. I was a resident of the People's Republic of China on the date of my arrival in the United States. I am not a United States citizen. I have not been lawfully accorded the privilege of residing permanently in the United States as an immigrant.
2. I am visiting the United States for the purpose of teaching, giving lectures, or conducting research at the Carnegie Institution of Washington, Department of Plant Biology which is an accredited educational institution or scientific research institution. I will receive compensation for my teaching, lecturing, or research activities.
3. The teaching, lecturing, or research compensation received during the entire taxable year (or during the period from _____ to _____) qualifies for exemption from withholding of federal tax under the tax treaty between the United States and the People's Republic of China. I have not previously claimed an income tax exemption under that treaty for income received as a teacher, lecturer, researcher, or student before the date of my arrival in the United States.
4. Any research I perform will be undertaken in the public interest and not primarily for the private benefit of a specific person or persons.
5. I arrived in the United States on _____ (the date of your last arrival in the United States before beginning the teaching, lecturing, or research activities). The treaty exemption is available only for compensation received during a maximum aggregate period of three years.

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that this statement, to the best of my knowledge and belief, is true, correct, and complete.
