

TAX TREATY STATEMENT

Japan Article 19

1. I was a resident of the Japan on the date of my arrival in the United States. I am not a United States citizen. I have not been lawfully accorded the privilege of residing permanently in the United States as an immigrant.
2. I have accepted an invitation by the United States government, or by a university or other recognized educational institution in the United States, to come to the United States for the purpose of teaching or engaging in research at Carnegie Institution of Washington, which is a recognized educational or research institution. I will receive compensation for my teaching, research or study activities.
3. The compensation received during the entire tax year (or during the portion of the year from _____ to _____) qualifies for exemption from withholding of federal tax under the tax treaty between the United States and Japan. I have not previously claimed an income tax exemption under that treaty for income received as a student, apprentice, or trainee during the immediately preceding period.
4. Any research I perform will be undertaken in the public interest and not primarily for the private benefit of a specific person or persons.
5. I arrived in the United States on _____ (the date of your last arrival into the United States before the services for which the exemption is claimed). The treaty exemption is available only for compensation paid during a period of two years beginning on that date.
