

TAX TREATY STATEMENT
Korea

1. I am a resident of Korea on the date of my arrival in the United States. I am not a United States citizen. I have not been lawfully accorded the privilege of residing permanently in the United States as an immigrant.

2. I have accepted an invitation by Carnegie Institution of Washington to come to the United States for a period not expected to exceed two years for the purpose of teaching or engaging in research at Carnegie Institution of Washington, which is a recognized research institution. I will receive compensation for my teaching or research activities.

3. The compensation received during the entire tax year (or during the period from _____ to _____) for these activities qualifies for exemption from withholding of federal tax under the tax treaty between the United States and Korea. I have not previously claimed an income tax exemption under that treaty for income received as a student, apprentice, or trainee during the immediately preceding period. (If, however, following the period in which the alien claimed benefits as a student, apprentice, or trainee, that person returned to Korea and resumed residence and physical presence before returning to the United States as a teacher or researcher, that person may claim the benefits of this treaty.)

4. Any research I perform will be undertaken in the public interest and not primarily for the private benefit of a specific person or persons.

5. I arrived in the United States on _____ (the date of your last arrival into the United States before the services for which the exemption is claimed). The treaty exemption is available only for compensation paid during a period of two years beginning on that date.
